Origami Risk

Claims Administration

Fast-track Claims Implementations

Launch an award-winning claims solution with speed, confidence, and lower implementation effort

Confident claims start here

Origami's claims platform is now available as a fully pre-configured, ready-to-deploy solution built specifically for growing insurers. It provides out-of-the-box modules and features to help manage the claims lifecycle efficiently and confidently—without the heavy lift of custom configuration. That means lower costs and a speed-to-market advantage to benefit the whole business.

Origami delivers exceptional value to modern insurers

Unlock faster, smarter claims implementations with benefits designed to reduce cost, complexity, and time to value:

- Lower implementation costs
  Reduce delivery hours and rework by leveraging pre-built assets to maximize return on investment.

- Reduce complexity with proven configurations
  Avoid reinventing the wheel. A pre-configured solution eliminates the need for custom builds for common requirements—simplifying delivery.

- Improve quality with repeatable processes
  Standardized workflows and configurations mean fewer surprises, and more consistent on-time delivery.

- Simplify training
  Enable your team members to start using the system from day one with ready-to-go resources, templates, and training materials.

- Retire legacy systems sooner
  Less time in development means you can decommission outdated technology earlier—reducing maintenance costs and freeing up resources.

Built for speed. Designed for growth.

Whether you're bringing claims processing in-house, modernizing legacy operations, or positioning technology for growth, Origami helps you deliver faster, smarter, and with greater confidence.
