The suite allows EHS professionals to:

- Promote a culture of safety by enabling employees to minimize time spent and efficiently report on in a centralized onestop shop available via web and offline mobile.
- Centralize data from these tools to gain insight into the efficacy of your EHS program and put controls in place to proactively reduce potential hazards, incidents, risk, and injuries while remaining compliant and tracking the impact of safety initiatives on efficiency and workers' wellbeing.
- Tie EHS initiatives with financial impact, including citations, fines, claims, and litigation to monitor the success of your program — since Origami EHS is built on the same platform as our award-winning risk management functionality.

Pre-configured safety standards

No need to start from scratch — leverage pre-built standards based on industry best practices and regulations to guide your safety program to ensure you are in compliance and keeping employees safe.

Flexible platform

Tailor existing EHS standard features to the needs of your organization — or build new functionality — without the need for custom code. Configure new modules as your EHS needs mature.

Client-centric approach

Access an award-winning services team that partners with you to ensure your success throughout implementation and support. Free quarterly platform updates are seamless and based on client feedback.

Efficient workflows

Leverage automated workflows, notifications, and an easy-to-use web and mobile platform to increase reporting, drive accountability, and decrease time spent on manual, repetitive tasks.
